

The Setauket Pallet

Upcoming events:

- 7th Annual “Spring into Art” District Art Show Saturday, April 17, 2010 11:00– 3:00 Students with art work in the show will have brought home notices.

Setauket school ‘s annual art show. May 18, 2010. 6-8p.m.

Mrs. Villari’s 6th grade class was selected to work with Scout Adam Gittin to paint “least tern decoys”. The decoy’s are part of Adam’s Eagle Scout project that aim’s to bring back the least tern population to West Meadow Beach. Students painted the decoys in art class for two weeks in February.

Spring 2010

Art Exhibit:

- ◆ “The Colors of Long Island”
- ◆ November 22nd - January 6, 2010. The exhibit was held at the Stony Brook Museum. Setauket students:
- ◆ Brandon Aviles and Cassidy Jansson , both 3rd graders had work in the show.

Exciting news from the art room

Community and Setauket art students joined together in an after school workshop in the month of November. The Setauket Neighborhood House held it’s 29th Annual Art Exhibit and invited Setauket art students to participate in an after school workshop with some of the artist involved. The students work was displayed in the Emma Clark Library from December through January.

Student work continues to be displayed at the North Country Administration Building, students with work on display will be given a notice to bring home.

Harriet O’Brien won the 6th grade LOGO contest!!!!

Visiting artist, Ed Klein, a professional cartoonist came to work with our 5th grade classes on March 8th and 9th . Mr. Klein talked about working for Warner Bros. and Disney and the making of animation. He drew several cartoons which the students could “win” by correctly answering a cartoon related question.

Sixth Grade Mural

Every year our sixth graders paint a mural on the walls at Setauket as a parting gift to the school. We have visiting artist , Mr. John Dinaro, who is a muralist, sculptor and painter, work with us on the first two days of the mural. Our mural kicks off this year on March 25th and 26th.

All 6th grade classes will work on the mural.

This year’s mural will be two paintings by “Pablo Picasso.”

“The Three Musicians” Painted in 1921, and “Dora Maar” painted in 1941.

Inside Story Headline

This story can fit 150-200 words.

One benefit of using your newsletter as a promotional tool is that you can reuse content from other marketing materials, such as press releases, market studies, and reports.

While your main goal of distributing a newsletter might be to sell your product or service, the key to a successful newsletter is making it useful to your readers.

A great way to add useful content to your newsletter is to develop and write your own articles, or include a calendar of upcoming events or a special offer that promotes a new product.

You can also research articles or find "filler" articles by accessing the World Wide Web. You can write about a variety of topics but try to keep your articles short.

Much of the content you put in your newsletter can also be used for your Web site. Microsoft Publisher offers a simple way to convert your newsletter to a Web publication. So, when you're finished writing your newsletter, convert it to a Web site and post it.

Caption describing picture or graphic.

Inside Story Headline

This story can fit 100-150 words.

The subject matter that appears in newsletters is virtually endless. You can include stories that focus on current technologies or innovations in your field.

You may also want to note business or economic trends, or make predictions for your customers or clients.

If the newsletter is distributed internally, you might comment upon new procedures or improvements to the business. Sales figures or earnings will show how your business is growing.

Some newsletters include a column that is updated every issue, for instance, an advice column, a book review, a letter from the president, or an editorial. You can also profile new employees or top customers or vendors.

"To catch the reader's attention, place an interesting sentence or quote from the story here."

Inside Story Headline

This story can fit 75-125 words.

Selecting pictures or graphics is an important part of adding content to your newsletter.

Think about your article and ask yourself if the picture supports or enhances the message you're trying to convey. Avoid selecting images that appear to be out of context.

Microsoft Publisher includes thousands of clip art images

Caption describing picture or graphic.

from which you can choose and import into your newsletter. There are also several tools you can use to draw shapes and symbols.

Once you have chosen an image, place it close to the article. Be sure to place the caption of the image near the image.

Inside Story Headline

This story can fit 150-200 words.

One benefit of using your newsletter as a promotional tool is that you can reuse content from other marketing materials, such as press releases, market studies, and reports.

While your main goal of distributing a newsletter might be to sell your product or service, the key to a successful newsletter is making it useful to your readers.

A great way to add useful content to your newsletter is to develop and write your own articles, or include a calendar of upcoming events or a special offer that promotes a new product.

You can also research articles or find "filler" articles by accessing the World Wide Web. You can write about a variety of topics but try to keep your articles short.

Much of the content you put in your newsletter can also be used for your Web site. Microsoft Publisher offers a simple way to convert your newsletter to a Web publication. So, when you're finished writing your newsletter, convert it to a Web site and post it.

Caption describing picture or graphic.

Inside Story Headline

This story can fit 100-150 words.

The subject matter that appears in newsletters is virtually endless. You can include stories that focus on current technologies or innovations in your field.

You may also want to note business or economic trends, or make predictions for your

customers or clients.

If the newsletter is distributed internally, you might comment upon new procedures or improvements to the business. Sales figures or earnings will show how your business is growing.

Some newsletters include a column that is updated every issue, for instance, an advice column, a book review, a letter from the president, or an editorial. You can also profile new employees or top customers or vendors.

"To catch the reader's attention, place an interesting sentence or quote from the story here."

Inside Story Headline

This story can fit 75-125 words.

Selecting pictures or graphics is an important part of adding content to your newsletter.

Think about your article and ask yourself if the picture supports or enhances the message you're trying to convey. Avoid selecting images that appear to be out of context.

Microsoft Publisher includes thousands of clip art images

Caption describing picture or graphic.

from which you can choose and import into your newsletter. There are also several tools you can use to draw shapes and symbols.

Once you have chosen an image, place it close to the article. Be sure to place the caption of the image near the image.

Three Village CSD

Primary Business Address
Your Address Line 2
Your Address Line 3
Your Address Line 4

Phone: 555-555-5555
Fax: 555-555-5555
Email: xyz@microsoft.com

Your business tag line here.

WE'RE ON THE WEB!

EXAMPLE.MICROSOFT.CO

M

This would be a good place to insert a short paragraph about your organization. It might include the purpose of the organization, its mission, founding date, and a brief history. You could also include a brief list of the types of products, services, or programs your organization offers, the geographic area covered (for example, western U.S. or European markets), and a profile of the types of customers or members served.

It would also be useful to include a contact name for readers who want more information about the organization.

Back Page Story Headline

This story can fit 175-225 words.

If your newsletter is folded and mailed, this story will appear on the back. So, it's a good idea to make it easy to read at a glance.

A question and answer session is a good way to quickly capture the attention of readers. You can either compile questions that you've received since the last edition or you can summarize some generic questions that are frequently asked about your organization.

A listing of names and titles of managers in your organization is a good way to give your newsletter a personal touch. If your organization is small, you may want to list the names of all employees.

If you have any prices of standard products or services, you can include a listing of those here. You may want to refer your readers to any other forms of communication that you've created for your organization.

You can also use this space to remind readers to mark their calendars for a regular event, such as a breakfast meeting for vendors every third Tuesday of the month, or a biannual charity auction.

If space is available, this is a good place to insert a clip art

Caption describing picture or graphic.

image or some other graphic.