Camp information: For soccer players of all ages who enjoy playing and learning the game of soccer. Children are placed into groups by age/grade and participate in a variety of activities, drills, contests and games. Each day of camp has a targeted teaching focus for each group. Athletes will learn, practice, and develop each focus area during that day and continuing throughout the week. Athletes are provided a 30 minute lunch/snack break, followed by a game or contest focusing on lessons taught that day. All athletic abilities are welcome.

Our staff is comprised of in-district Middle School, JV, and Varsity certified coaches, College coaches and teachers who are CPR/AED & first aid certified, as well as, graduating seniors from the high school. This camp is designed to improve your child's skills, knowledge and understanding of soccer, as well as provide them with a FUN and memorable experience.
